Dear: [REDACTED]

WARNING 7259 IN TERMS OF THE ANIMALS PROTECTION ACT NO. 71 OF 1962

Regarding the inspection conducted at [REDACTED] in [REDACTED], on the 26th of January 2023, the contravention below was observed and discussed with [REDACTED] (General manager).

1. Upon inspection, were unable to walk due to injury or other complications. This is the second day that injured animals are left without preferential slaughter. Any sick or injured animals must be regarded as preferential slaughtered and must be slaughtered immediately.
2. During the inspection, it was found again that birds were being kept in holding pens without any access to water. All animals must have access to potable water at all times.
3. The birds were left in the sun for a period of time and no shading was provided. This is unacceptable and birds should wait in the holding cages underneath the shade prior to being slaughtered.
4. Upon inspection, we found again that one of the workers was picking the chickens up by their wings, which is a contravention of the Animals Protection Act 71 of 1962 and The Meat Safety Act 40 of 2000. No Animal should be picked up by their heads, fleece, skin, ears, tails, horns or legs this should be stopped with immediate effect.

Dear: [REDACTED]

WARNING 7276 IN TERMS OF THE ANIMALS PROTECTION ACT NO. 71 OF 1962

In respect of the inspection conducted at [REDACTED] on the 28th of March 2023, the below contravention was observed and discussed with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

1. During the inspection, it was found that the chicks were not handled humanely. The chicks were thrown back into the crates after being handled. Animals should be handled with respect and humanely. This needs to be rectified immediately, as explained to [REDACTED].
2. Upon inspection, it appeared that chicks were disabled and injured. According to [REDACTED], the manager, the chicks were scheduled to be culled in 2 hours. It is unacceptable that euthanasia of compromised animals is delayed due to production. With immediate effect, prompt euthanasia must be prioritised to prevent unnecessary suffering.
