WARNING 5004 IN TERMS OF THE ANIMALS PROTECTION ACT NO. 71 OF 1962

Regarding the inspection conducted at [REDACTED] in [REDACTED], on the 12th of January 2023, the contravention below was observed and discussed with [REDACTED] (Process manager) and [REDACTED] (SHEQ Coordinator).

1. Upon inspection, I noticed that the chickens in the crates by the shackling are not all removed from the crates. The chickens jumped out the crates into the wash bay for the crates and this led to the death of the chickens. To ensure that all birds are removed humanly from the crates to prevent unnecessarily stress, suffering, injury, and death for all birds.

Regarding the inspection conducted at [REDACTED] in [REDACTED], on the 25th of January 2023, the contravention below was observed and discussed with [REDACTED] (General manager).

1. Upon inspection, were birds unable to walk due to injury or other complications. Any sick or injured animals must be regarded as preferential slaughtered and must be slaughtered immediately.
2. During the inspection, it was found that birds were being kept in holding pens without any access to water. All animals must have access to potable water at all times.
3. During the inspection, it was found that the bird crates were overcrowded and not all animals were able to sit comfortably at the same time this needs to be rectified with immediate effect.
4. The overloaded crates were left in the sun for a period of time. This is unacceptable and birds should wait in the holding cages underneath the shade prior to being slaughtered.
5. Upon inspection, we found that one of the workers was picking the chickens up by their wings, which is a contravention of the Animals Protection Act 71 of 1962 and The Meat Safety Act 40 of 2000. No Animal should be picked up by their heads, fleece, skin, ears, tails, horns or legs this should be stopped with immediate effect.

6. Birds were not stunned effectively. The birds still showed signs of being conscious when being slaughtered. The birds should be stunned correctly prior to being slaughtered.
