Dear

RE: ANIMAL LAW REFORM SOUTH AFRICA | CHICKENLAND (PTY) LTD T/A NANDO'S

1. We refer to your email of 7 March 2023 and confirm, again, that we act on behalf of Chickenland (Pty) Ltd t/a Nando's (hereinafter referred to as "our client").
2. We do not deal with each and every allegation in your email under reply; and our failure to do so should not be construed as an admission or otherwise of the correctness thereof. Our client's rights to deal with those allegations at the appropriate forum and at the appropriate time remain strictly and expressly reserved.
3. We are instructed to inform you that our client stands by its demand of 27 February 2023 that ALRSA, inter alia, follows the appropriate processes in terms of PAIA if it is not satisfied with our client's PAIA response to it. Of course, our client will abide by any final outcome as envisaged in terms of PAIA and provide the necessary information if it is ordered to do so by the Information Regulator, a Court of Law and/or any other appropriate forum.
4. We similarly confirm – once again – that our client does not consent to (i) participate in or (ii) be included in or (iii) be ranked in any report compiled by ALRSA and it reserves its rights to institute an action for damages against ALRSA should it be included in the report and/or misrepresent any facts relating to our client.
5. Our client's rights remain reserved.

Yours faithfully
